Outstanding Seniors...

Dianne Strickland, one of the few National Merit Finalists Fletcher has produced, earned this honor by making one of the highest scores on a nation-wide standardized exam which is offered to high school Juniors.

Kelly Waering, a remarkable student, is a National Merit Finalist, an Optimist Club and Harvard Book Award winner, N.C.T.E. Achievement Award Finalist, and a member of the Joe Berg Science Seminar.

An enthusiastic participant in extracurricular activities, Nan Dickinson was elected Girls’ State representative. At the conclusion of her week’s stay, she was chosen one of the twelve outstanding delegates.

Lee Ann Droué, who was the alternate to Girls’ State, also received an Optimist Club Achievement Award in recognition of service to the school. One of her most prized honors is the D.A.R. Citizenship Award.

Most Athletic, George Grandy, brought glory to his school and the Fighting Senator football team. He was chosen All-City and All-State, and became the only Fletcher player ever named to the All-Southern team.

The Sewanee Book Award, based on success attained in both scholarship and athletics, was awarded to Danny Anderson. A member of the football and track teams, he also has maintained a high scholastic average.
